

Latin Elementar Rhythmen

Notation

A musical staff with five lines. Below the staff, five rhythmic symbols are shown with their corresponding instrument names: a solid black circle for Bass Drum, an 'x' for Hi Hat, a triangle for Rim Click, a circle with a vertical line for Tom 1, and an 'x' with a vertical line for Cymbal.

Bass und Hi Hat Grundrhythmus

A musical staff with five lines. Above the staff, the numbers 1, 2, +, 3, 4, + are written. The notation shows a solid black circle on the first line of the staff at the first beat. On the second beat, there is an 'x' on the second line. On the third beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fourth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fifth beat, there is an 'x' on the second line. On the sixth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. Thick black bars are drawn under the staff between the second and third beats, and between the fourth and fifth beats.

Bass und Hi Hat mit Rim Click

A musical staff with five lines. Above the staff, the numbers 1, 2, +, 3, 4, + are written. The notation shows a solid black circle on the first line of the staff at the first beat. On the second beat, there is a triangle on the second line and an 'x' on the second line. On the third beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fourth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fifth beat, there is an 'x' on the second line. On the sixth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. Thick black bars are drawn under the staff between the second and third beats, and between the fourth and fifth beats.

Bass, Hi Hat mit Rim Click und Tom

A musical staff with five lines. Above the staff, the numbers 1, 2, +, 3, 4, + are written. The notation shows a solid black circle on the first line of the staff at the first beat. On the second beat, there is a triangle on the second line and an 'x' on the second line. On the third beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fourth beat, there is a circle with a vertical line on the second line and an 'x' on the second line. On the fifth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the sixth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. Thick black bars are drawn under the staff between the second and third beats, and between the fourth and fifth beats.

Latin Basic Rhythmus

A musical staff with five lines. Above the staff, the numbers 1, 2, +, 3, 4, + are written. The notation shows a solid black circle on the first line of the staff at the first beat. On the second beat, there is a triangle on the second line and an 'x' on the second line. On the third beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the fourth beat, there is a circle with a vertical line on the second line and an 'x' on the second line. On the fifth beat, there is a solid black circle on the first line. On the sixth beat, there is a circle with a vertical line on the second line and a solid black circle on the first line. Thick black bars are drawn under the staff between the second and third beats, and between the fourth and fifth beats.