

Rock Rhythmen 1 e

The image displays 28 numbered exercises for rock rhythms, arranged in seven rows of four. Each exercise is presented on two staves: the top staff shows drum notation with 'x' marks for cymbals and asterisks for snare/drum hits, and the bottom staff shows the corresponding bass line with stems and notes. The exercises are numbered 1 through 28 in circles above each pair of staves.

Rock Rhythmen 1e

The image displays a musical score for a drum set, titled "Rock Rhythmen 1e". The score is organized into seven horizontal rows, each containing four measures of music. Each measure is numbered in a circle at the top of the staff. The measures are numbered 29 through 56, with the final measure (56) ending with a double bar line. The notation consists of two staves per measure: the upper staff represents the snare drum and the lower staff represents the bass drum. The rhythm is a 4/4 rock beat, characterized by a consistent snare drum pattern of eighth notes and a bass drum pattern of quarter notes. The snare drum part features a steady eighth-note pattern, while the bass drum part plays a quarter-note pattern. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and quarter rests, along with dynamic markings like accents and slurs. The overall structure is a continuous sequence of rhythmic patterns designed for practice.
